Paperback. 70 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. This is a short story fiction book written about parents who were considered weird by their children, as well as their community and society for the ways in which they both treated their children and behaved towards their neighbors and friends. The children had to endure much hardships and pains. They were obedient children and did exactly what their parents instructed them to do even if it wasn't normal. The oldest child, Belinda decided one night while in her bed crying she had took enough of this torture coming from them and made up in her mind that she had to find a way to help end this awful plight she and her brother was going through. She couldn't find no way out, everything she did or tried had failed. They wouldn't listen to anything she had to say to them. Neither one of her parents were kind or compassionate enough to lend a listening ear to Belinda and what she had to say. It was either their way or no way. That is the way things were...
