Permanent Black, New Delhi, India, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. First Edition. Prison letters, despite being subjected to the scrutiny of government censors, often supply some of the deepest insights into the mind of a revolutionary. Subhas Chandra Boses letters from Mandalay certainly underscore the truth of the poetic assertion: "Stone walls do not a prison make, nor iron bars a cage." They make this volume one of the most moving in the 12-volume set of Netajis Collected Works. Subhas Chandra Boses exile in Burmese prisons from 1924 to 1927 witnessed the transformation of a lieutenant to a leader. During the non-cooperation movement and its aftermath he had wholeheartedly accepted Deshbandhu Chitta Ranjan Das as his political mentor. The apprenticeship was cut short by Deshbandhus death in June 1925. When Subhas received this terrible news as a prisoner in Mandalay, he felt "desolate with a sense of bereavement", as he wrote to his friend Dilip Kumar Roy. Netajis letters cover a very wide array of topics art, music, literature, nature, education, folk culture, civic affairs, criminology, spirituality, and, of course, politics. He bore the rigours of prison life with a combination of stoicism and humour. This volume is indispensable to an understanding of Indias most major revolutionary leader and will interest all historians of modern India. Printed Pages: 384. Size: 14 Cms x 22 Cms.
