Uittreksel: .to campaign the State thoroughly with the avowed purpose of meeting the opposition of Senator Reed. Seventy-seven counties in Iowa are now officially organized. State Secretary John C. Orth writes that these county branches are doing good work and the organization work is going on quietly, while just now public meetings are being given over to the Victory Loan. The Iowa branch has an active chairman for each Congressional District, whose duty it is to oversee the work of organizing every county in his district. New York County was organized for active work at a meeting held April 21 at the Headquarters of the State branch, 130 West 42d Street. Ex-Congressman Herbert Parsons presided and was elected chairman. The other officers were chosen as follows: Vice-Chairman, William P. Burr, Corporation Counsel of New York; Treasurer, Stephen Baker, President of the Bank of Manhattan Company; Secretary, Mrs. Richard B. Aldcroft. Plans were discussed for arousing popular support of the League of Nations Covenant through special committees on women s clubs, churches, commercial organizations, college clubs and other organizations. The San Francisco Unit of the League is calling public attention to its work through a poster which is being placed in windows of all the street cars in the city. Joseph M. Cumming, secretary of the Regional Executive Committee, has sent to National Headquarters a sample of the poster which states in bold type: Every American Should Be Fully Informed Upon THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS now...
