Since Protestantism has been fully revealed to Europe, its scandal and blot has been in the divisions of its professors. Its progress in Germany was ruined, and the Thirty Years War made possible, by the mutual enmities of Lutheran and Calvinist. In Great Britain it was weakened and imperilled, and the civil war caused, by the attempt to enforce Episcopalianism on Scotland and suppress Puritanism in England. Since toleration has been established, many have been the sighs after a comprehensive church, many the attempts made by seceders to establish churches truly catholic. Yet all have failed; nor is it difficult to see why. Every Protestant church hitherto has attempted to take theological truth as its foundation; while the very point on which good men are at variance is, what is theological truth.
