In Houston an election was held on the 8th to deTexas. cide whether or not the city issue $100,000 bonds to construct an electric liehting plant. These bonds were voted at an election, held November 29, 1897, but invalidated because all taxpayers were allowed to vote, whereas only property taxpayers should have been allowed to vote, and only these were allowed at this recent Referendum. On November 9, they voted on the issuance of $300,000, sewer bonds. Houston s sister city of Galveston is in trouble because of a lack of Referendum. Gay Co., of New York, who purchased the $300,000 issue of Galveston sewer bonds, and as a guarantee of good faith deposited $5,000, have refused to take the bonds on the ground that their issuance without...
