Indeed, this sentiment of affection and respect suffices to make them apt to learn during the time of their studies, and full of gratitude all the rest of their lives. It seems to me to include a great part of what is to be expected from them. Docility, which consists in submitting to directions, in readily receiving the instructions of their masters, and reducing them Jo practice, is properly the virtue of scholars, as that of masters is le teach well. The ene can do nothing without the other; and as it is not sufficient for a labourer to sow the seed, unless...
