

Survival in the Sea of Economic Chaos: Perspectives on Leadership Actions for Businesses in Crisis (Paperback)

By Carol L Fatuzzo

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . RECESSION. UNEMPLOYMENT. FORECLOSURE. BANKRUPTCIES. There is no end in sight to the roller coaster of economic change. In other words, today, whether or not there is an official recession, economic chaos remains. This new reality, intensified by increasingly interconnected global economies, is unlikely to change, although the causes of the chaos may. Earthquakes, tsunamis, political uprisings, volatile oil prices, bankrupt nations are just a few examples of external forces that can and do start the tremors that produce giant waves of economic chaos. What are the consequences? Businesses will continue to experience financial crises, frequently unanticipated and often created by events outside of their control. How businesses can survive these crises and achieve stability in our turbulent world is the focus of SURVIVAL IN THE SEA OF ECONOMIC CHAOS. To be more specific, business survival in times of crisis depends on leaders and their decisions. What should these actions be, and what kind of leadership is needed? To answer these questions the book explores different possible leadership survival actions. According to the book, We provide assistance to leaders...
