Not illustrated. 1911 Excerpt: .Some of those who were injured will probably not survive. Once there was an accident before on this bridge. It happened in about the same manner as this one. Fortunately there were no lives lost at that time. This accident happened Aug. 17, 1879. Yesterday four cars of a special train carrying excursionists to Forest Lake left the rails while crossing a high bridge at Washington, Mass., falling into the river below. Fifteen passengers were killed and about sixty were injured, some probably fatally. A similar accident happened at the same place Aug. 17, 1879, but without loss of life. Oftentimes a single word may be substituted for several words without loss of meaning. Examples 1 For several moments the boy stood still, filled with terror that cannot be described. For several moments the boy stood still, filled with indescribable terror. 2 He was anxious to...
