RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 34 pages. Excerpt: . . . extract from a newspaper article, written on the occasion of his death, may be taken as a fair estimate of his character: By this sudden and painful blow a nobleman has been taken away who filled a conspicuous place in this vicinity, and who was held in the highest respect. Having succeeded to his father in 1875, he has enjoyed the title and estates for only twelve years (1887). But as Master of Lovat he was known for many years before that time as a worthy and popular representative of a great and ancient Highland house. No county gathering seemed to be complete without his presence. . . . Homely in his manner, he was never difficult to approach, and his kindness of spirit showed itself in many ways. Conscientious and sober in judgment, he steadily endeavored to do his duty; and his lamented death caused a blank which cannot easily be filled. He left a family of nine, and was succeeded by his eldest son, XXIII. Simon Joseph , seventeenth Lord Lovat, to whose health, as our chief, we have drained...
