When sixth graders, Kevin and Melanie come across Jordan, a kindergarten student with autism, they become fast friends and discover that although Jordan is somewhat different, he is talented at drawing. Teaming up, Kevin and Jordan decide to paint a mural (which is really graffiti) on school's property. In the process they learn, along with Melanie, that even when they put their hands to do something good, there are boundaries. Reviews

This book will be worth getting. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. Its been written in an extremely basic way which is only right after i finished reading this book through which actually altered me, alter the way i believe.

This book can be worthy of a read, and much better than other. It usually fails to charge a lot of. I realized this publication from my dad and i encouraged this pdf to understand.
